Mayfield State School provides all students at the school with computer facilities for educational use. To use computer equipment at Mayfield State School, students should abide by the following conditions:

- To use only the software on the school equipment that is purchased and installed by the school.
- To respect software copyright – it is illegal to copy or distribute school software.
- To follow the rules posted for the use and care of the computer equipment at all times.
- To use the computer facilities outside of class time only under the direction of teachers.
- To observe privacy and network security. Students must not, under any circumstances, access personal files, software or areas of the network that are not designated for their use.
- To not print materials of a personal nature or un-associated with school activities.
- To not seek, send, display or copy to school computers, any offensive or illegal materials.
- To not use inappropriate language or harass others when communicating online.
- To not give out personal details online unless under direct teacher supervision.
- To not access the internet unless directly supervised by teaching staff.

Student

I understand that if the school decides I have broken these rules, appropriate action will be taken. This may include loss of my internet access for some time.

- I understand that the internet can provide students with valuable learning experiences.
- I also understand that it gives access to information on computers around the world; that the school cannot control what is on those computers; and that a very small part of that information can be illegal, dangerous or offensive.
- I accept that, while teachers will always exercise their duty of care, protection against exposure
- I believe .....(name of student) understands this responsibility, and I hereby give my permission for him/her to access the internet under the school rules. I understand that students breaking these rules will be subject to appropriate action by the school. This may include loss of internet access for some time.
